

One of the most serious endeavors for ministers and churches is that of recognizing and ordaining men to the gospel ministry. The ministry itself is the God ordained means of perpetuating the truth unto the next generation (2 Timothy 2:2). Does the bible give us any guidelines to follow? What characteristics should be considered? In this sermon, Elder Gowens gives 5 tests that we can use as a basis for recognizing a true gospel minister.

Click to download.

{audio}http://marchtozion.com/media/MikeGowens_MinisterTests.mp3{/audio}