

Earlier this week, the Houston Chronicle published a series of articles highlighting sexual abuse and an alleged pattern of cover up among Southern Baptist Churches (SBC) in the United States. This led to blazing conversation among media personalities, commentators, preachers, and individuals on social media. Sad is it is, this is only the latest of other such scandals, as similar cases have rocked IFB, SGM, and ARBCA congregations. This, aside from the repeated cover ups among the Roman Catholic "Priesthood."

In this episode, we consider this shameful fiasco, while speaking to biblical solutions which prevent the potential for wolves to abuse the flock.

Topics include:

- Sexual abuse scandals
- Romans 13
- Church discipline
- Interchurch communication
- Family integrated worship
