

Announcement: Starkville Primitive Baptist Meeting

Written by Josh Winslett

Thursday, 17 July 2014 19:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 July 2014 19:47

Lord willing, Elder Joseph Nettles, pastor of Sulfur Springs PBC of Caledonia MS, is planning on hosting a worship service on Wednesday nights at the LaQuinta Inn in Starkville, MS.

The service time will be at 6:00pm. The first two services will be on August 6th and August 20th . Starting on September 3rd

, they will planning on meeting every Wednesday evening from that point forward. This will be a regular, slightly shortened worship service with singing, prayer, preaching, and fellowship.

Please invite those you may know who are attending Mississippi State University and anyone in the general Starkville area. If you cannot attend, we ask that you pray that God would bless this endeavor with His will and to His glory. If you would like to contact Elder Nettles please go to our contact page and send us a private request for his contact information. Thank you and God bless.